

КАК ВЕСТИ СЕБЯ ПРИ ВСТРЕЧИ С ОПАСНЫМИ ЖИВОТНЫМИ

Медведь и лось

A brown bear is walking from left to right across a gravelly path. The bear has thick, brown fur and is looking down. The background is a blurred natural setting with green grass and a blue sky. The text "Как вести себя при встрече с медведем" is overlaid in red on the bear's body.

Как вести себя при
встрече с медведем

A photograph of a forest. In the background, a brown bear is visible, partially obscured by trees and foliage. The foreground is dominated by a large, fallen, light-colored tree trunk that has been cut or broken, lying on the ground. The ground is covered with dry leaves and twigs. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

Прежде надо не
попадать в такие
ситуации когда вы
встречаетесь с медведем

Если вы его видите а он вас нет.

Помните самая большая
опасность это детёныши зверей.

Когда вы его видите. И
не только.
