KEROOM

A modern, multi-story house with a mix of light and dark grey exterior panels, large windows, and balconies with metal railings. The house is illuminated from within and by small exterior lights. A dark SUV is parked in the driveway in the foreground. The sky is a deep blue with some clouds, and trees with autumn foliage are visible in the background.

A high-angle, monochromatic photograph of a modern bathroom vanity. The vanity is a light gray color and features a white, rectangular, drop-in sink with a sleek, curved chrome faucet. Above the sink is a large, round, frameless mirror. To the right of the sink, a white ceramic bowl is mounted on a chrome ring. On the vanity surface, there are several items: a small white tube, a clear glass bottle with reed diffusers, and a white ceramic toothbrush holder containing a toothbrush. The background wall is covered in a patterned wallpaper with large, irregular, light-colored shapes on a white background. A white shower curtain is visible on the left side of the frame.
