PANIA
OF THE REEF
AN OLD MAORI LEGEND
TALKS OF A WOMAN CALLED
PANIANE WHO WAS LURED
BY THE SIRENS WHO SANG
THE SONG OF SWAN OUT
TO MEET THEM. WHEN SHE REACHED TO KNOW THE
REASON SHE WAS TRICKED
SHE FOUND SHE WAS TRICKED
AND SHE DIED. SHE WAS
TRICKED INTO THE REEF
AND SHE DIED. SHE WAS
TRICKED INTO THE REEF
AND SHE DIED.

The Legend of Pania of the Reef

Queen Charlotte Track

The Pōhutukawa is a coastal evergreen tree, Renowned for its vibrant colour and its ability to survive even perched on rocky, precarious cliffs, it has found an important place in New Zealand culture for its strength and beauty and is regarded as a chiefly tree (rākau rangatira) by Māori.

The Koru is a spiral shape based on the shape of a new unfurling silver fern frond and symbolizing new life, growth, strength and peace.
