

HOW DO WE USE THE WORD “MONEY”?

Unit 4 Step 3

What is Money?

Money is any object accepted as means of exchange within a society

DOES A LOT OF MONEY MAKE YOU

HAPPY?

A lot of people think that happiness can be acquired with the help of money, or that you need money to be happy.

Money can't buy love and a happy life comes from having good friends and family who care about us. Our life becomes meaningful and happy when we are around loved one

Several people think that material wealth or just a lot of money can make them happy, or they can buy everything that they believe can make them happy.

I think that friends, family, relationships all are priceless.

Such things cannot be bought and that is what real happiness is about.

Remember, money can't buy you happiness but happiness can get you more money!

B. attempt: an attempt to do something, at the first (second) attempt, to make no attempt, in an attempt to do something. All attempts to control the situation failed. In an attempt to learn how to ski, he spent hours in the forest.

concern: to be full of concern, one's concern. Kitty's friend felt some concern for her safety. Anna expressed her deep concern about conditions at the factory. Stress at work is a matter of great concern to us all. That's no concern of mine.

gain: to gain from something; to gain something gradually. What do you hope to gain by this action? Customers have gained a lot from the competition of the companies. If you marry an Englishman, you do not automatically gain British citizenship.

mutual: mutual cooperation, mutual interests, mutual understanding. My friend and I have a mutual interest in sports.

reduction: 1) a huge reduction, to make reductions; to result in some reduction. The government has found it difficult to make real reductions in government spendings. 2) a 15% reduction. The shop is offering a 10-percent reduction on the price of summer clothes.

rush: to rush past somebody; to rush off down the corridor; to rush somebody (to be rushed) into something. I rushed to pack my suitcase as we were leaving at five. I'm not going to be rushed into this project.

scary: a scary film. The book is both scary and funny. It was scary to be all alone in the big old house.

wage(s): to earn a good wage; a wage increase/wage rise; a living wage, a daily wage, a weekly wage. A weekly wage at the factory is 250 dollars. The wage increase will come into effect in June.

draw attention (to): We want to draw your attention to the fact that no attempts have been made to finish the project.

drop out: Boys are 30 percent more likely than girls to drop out of school.

get rid (of): I bought a new television set so now I want to get rid of my old one.
