

Over the river and through the wood

Thanksgiving poem

Over the River and Through the Wood

(a thanksgiving poem)

Over the river, and through the wood,
To _____ house we go;
the horse knows the way to carry the sleigh
through the _____ and drifted snow.

Over the river, and through the _____,
to Grandfather's house away!
We would not _____ for doll or top,
for 'tis Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river, and _____ the wood—
oh, how the _____ does blow!
It stings the _____ and bites the nose
as over the ground we go.

Over the river, and through the wood—
and straight through the barnyard _____,
We seem to go _____ slow,

Over the River and Through the Wood

(a thanksgiving poem)

Over the river, and through the wood,
To Grandfather's house we go;
the horse knows the way to carry the sleigh
through the white and drifted snow.

Over the river, and through the wood,
to Grandfather's house away!
We would not stop for doll or top,
for 'tis Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river, and through the wood—
oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes and bites the nose
as over the ground we go.

Over the river, and through the wood—
and straight through the barnyard gate,
We seem to go extremely slow,
