THE IMJIN WAR

And now a bit of history. The city appeared at the beginning of our era. The name "Busan" first appears in historical records around the 14th century. This was the name of the port and the fishing village. The name comes from the name of the mountain. Its shape resembled a pot which is why the town was named Busan Pn.

In 1592 The Imjin War began in the country. Busan, as a strategic facility in the southern part of Korea, was captured. It was one of the first wars with Japan, which lasted 6 years. In the middle of the 20th century, after the division of Korea into two parts, the city was proposed as the capital of the Republic of Korea.
