Part 1 Learner autonomy

What is today's learners like?

What is today's learners like?

- Very busy and overloaded with information
- Has access to many internet resources
- Technologically addicted
- Can travel global
- Wants fun

What do our students do in everyday life?

What do our students do in everyday life?

- Watch films
- Read news
- Read books
- Read film and book reviews
- Chat in social media
- Listen to music
- Edutain, i.e. learn via edutainment

Why are they not autonomous?

- No time
- No motivation
- Not aware of this necessity
- No knowledge how to become more autonomous (e.g. about resources)
- Laziness
- We don't allow/ help them to be

What can we do as teachers to boost learner autonomy?

- To integrate English into their lives as much as possible
- To raise their awareness of advantages of becoming more autonomous
- To scaffold them with tools, resources and activities
- To keep their motivation for being more autonomous

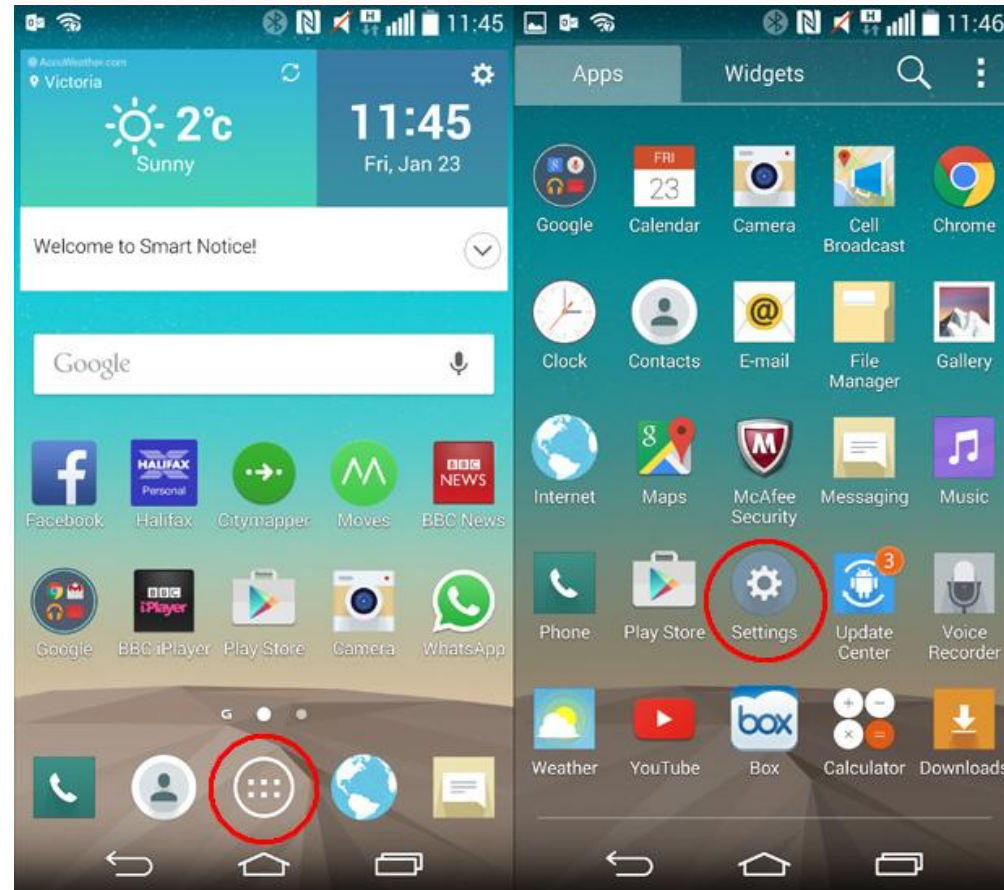

Approaches to learner autonomy

I rested in Adams Beach Resort with my friend from 7th November to 15th November 2018. We arrived in the afternoon and had quite a quick check-in and replacement in our room. Receptionists (unfortunately, I don't remember their names) were not a very friendly, but ready to answer the questions. They speak in English and a bit in Russian. At the time of registration the hotel is blocked the deposit 100 euro from my card (alternatively we could leave the deposit in cash). This rule is was very-very strange for me and it was the first time when i came across such practice in my travel. When I checked out, I paid extra 67,05 euro for different drinks at dinner. The receptionist told me that the deposit amount 100 euro would be returned to my card in a few days. But it did not during 4 days, so I had need to send an email to the hotel with a reminder. Some words about hotel and hotels infrastructure. We have had a room in old hotels corp, the room was small and needed renovation. But for extra payment newer rooms are available. Adams Beach Resort has its own beach, which is located near the one of the most more beautiful and famous cyprus beaches - Nissi beach. The Beach is sandy, equipped of the quite amount loungers; at some places there are rocks, but you can step down by a comfortable... Еще

Reading in English

<https://breakingnewsenglish.com/>

The screenshot shows the homepage of Breaking News English. At the top, the site title "Breaking News English" is displayed with the subtitle "2,471 Free English Lessons in 7 Levels". To the right, there are two buttons: "1,000 Ideas e-Book" and "4,558 More Lessons". Below this is a navigation bar with links for "Level 0", "Level 1", "Level 2", "Level 3", "Level 4", "Level 5", "Level 6", "Mini-Lessons", "Speed Reading", "5-Speed Listening", and "Dictation". A large banner features a WWF logo and the text "Fewer than 30 vaquitas left in the world But We Can Save Them" with an image of a vaquita. Below the banner is a section titled "Latest Lessons - December 12th, 2017". The first lesson is "100 Questions for Christmas (and other activities)" dated "25th December" with a description: "A 100-question handout for students to talk about Christmas. Other activities too." The second lesson is "Video of starving polar bear goes viral" dated "12th December - 'Harder'" with a description: "A video of a starving and emaciated polar bear collapsing in Canada's wilderness has gone viral on the Internet." Below this lesson are three buttons for "Level 4", "Level 5", and "Level 6".

VIMBOX translator and app Aword

The screenshot displays a web browser window with a news article from The Economist. The article text is partially obscured by the Vimbox translator interface. The translator shows the word "election" and its Russian equivalents "выборы, избрание". A word history list is also visible, showing "election", "was", and "we" with their Russian translations. The interface includes a search bar, a user profile, and navigation buttons.
