

Child labour prohibition and regulation

PATEL DHAIRYA
17LL3(A)
Medical law

Child labour (Prohibition and regulation) Act 1986

- Prohibition of child labour in occupations set forth in schedule A.
- Age of child is 14
- Penalty-first time offender will face minimum 3 months imprisonment to 1 year fine from 10,000/- to 20,000/-
- Second time offender will face minimum 6 months to 2 years.

The child labour prohibition and regulation act 1986

- The act came in force from 23rd december,1986
- An act to prohibit the engagement of children in certain employment and to regulate the condition of work of children in certain other employment

objective

To prohibit the engagement of children in certain employments

To regulate the condition of work of children in certain other employments

Hours and periods of work

- No child shall be required or permitted to working any establishment in excess of such number of hours as may be prescribe for such establishment or class of it.
- The period of work on each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed 3 hour and that no child shall work more than fixed time

Continue...

- The period of work shall not be spread over more than 6 hours
- No child shall be permitted or required to work between 7 p.m. and 8 a.m.
- No child shall be required or permitted work overtime.

Some important definition

- Child – means a person who has not completed his 14th year of age
- Establishment – includes a shop a commercial establishment, workshop, farm, residential, hotel, restaurant, eating

The child labour prohibition and regulation rules

- The term of child labour technical advisory committee shall be one year which may extended for 2 years
- The officer not below the rank and under secretary to the government of India may be appointed as secretary of the committee

Conclusion

- By providing all necessary things we can stop child labour.
- By the awareness about the education.
- By applying law strictly, we can stop child labour.
- Compulsory education may break the attitude of the people who force the child to work.