

London historical sights

London – Capital of the UK – From Above

Buckingham Palace

The Clock Tower

- to be of great interest
- to stand near Westminster Palace
- to be built in the 19th century (1858)
- to have four faces (the clock)
- to have a very loud bell
- to weigh more than 13 tons (the bell)
- Sir Benjamin Hall
- to be in charge of the building of the Clock Tower
- Big Ben
- in honour of Sir Benjamin Hall (the tall man)
- to call the clock, its bell and the Clock itself

Trafalgar Square

to attract many tourists from other countries

The National Gallery

to admire all exhibits of the world famous collection of the gallery

The Tower of London to look the big doors for the night (the guards, at 10 pm)

The Tower Bridge

to make the view of London more attractive

St. Paul's Cathedral

- one of the most beautiful Renaissance building in the world
- to attract visitors from all over the world
- to contain many fine paintings, sculptures, monuments a works of art
- the greatest work of Christopher Wren
- the England's architect
- to be finished in 1710 (the building of the Cathedral)
- to be almost eighty already (Christopher Wren)

Buckingham Palace

to attract a great number of Londoners and tourists from other countries

