

Adverbs of Frequency

Study Habits

Well, I always do my homework, and I often I got an "A+." again. I do

Adverbs of Frequency 1

Adverbs of frequency say how often something happens.

He always studies.
He never studies.
He sometimes studies.
He often studies.

Adverbs of Frequency 2

Adverbs of frequency come after the verb be.

She is sometimes late.

The students are never bored.

Adverbs of Frequency 3

Adverbs of frequency usually come before other verbs.

She often checks her answers.

He usually pays attention in class.

Usually and Sometimes

Usually and sometimes can also come at the beginning or end of a sentence.

The dog eats his homework sometimes.

Sometimes the dog eats his homework.

The dog sometimes eats his homework.

Practice 1

Work with a partner. Describe your study habits. Use adverbs of frequency and the phrases below.

Example: study at my computer

1 I sometimes study at
2 my computer.

3) b

4) r

5) n

6) b

notes

always usually

often

sometimes

rarely

never 100%

50%

0%

Questions with Ever

Use ever in yes/no questions. Ever means “at any time.”

Are the tests ever easy?

Does he ever get an “A”?

Be Careful!

Do not use ever in affirmative statements.

Yes! I ~~ever~~ come on time.

I never come late.

Questions with How Often

Use how often to ask about frequency.

How often do you study with a partner?

I rarely study with a partner.

Practice 2

With a partner, ask questions with how often. Follow the examples.

How often _____ you...

Example:

- 1) How often do you fall asleep studying?
- 2) How often are you tired?
- 3) listen to the teacher
- 4) practice speaking English
- 5) get an “A” on a test
- 6) be confused in class

