

Chicago

Chicago is the largest city of Illinois and third largest city of the United States after New York and Los Angeles. Chicago was founded in between the Lake Michigan and Mississippi River watershed. Location: on the south-east tip of Lake Michigan

A well-known fact that the city is the center of business and finance and ranked as the world's top ten Global Financial Centers.

Additionally, Chicago is listed as "alpha world city" by the World Cities Study Group at Loughborough University.

Millenium Park

A great place to engross yourself with the multitude of welcome distractions.

The Skydeck or observation floor is open to the public and offers great views at night as well. In fact insiders say, the best time to get great views is after 5 PM. It is a must-see and do in Chicago! It offers a great view of the city and on a clear day, you can see clear through to four of Illinois' neighboring states.

Willis Tower Skydeck

Chicago has various nicknames including "Chi-town", "Windy City", "Second City," the "City of Big Shoulders", and "American of big cities".
