Suggested Answer Key

Then out of the blue someone jumped out in front of me and started to threaten me, saying, "Hand over your purse, or I'll hurt you." I was in a state of shock as it was the first time anyone had tried to mug me. At first I didn't want to give him what he wanted, but when he attacked me with a knife I knew I had to do as I was told. I held out my purse and he grabbed it from me and ran away. Luckily, I was able to give the police a good description of the criminal and they caught him soon after. I identified him as the mugger and he was given a prison sentence.

Answer

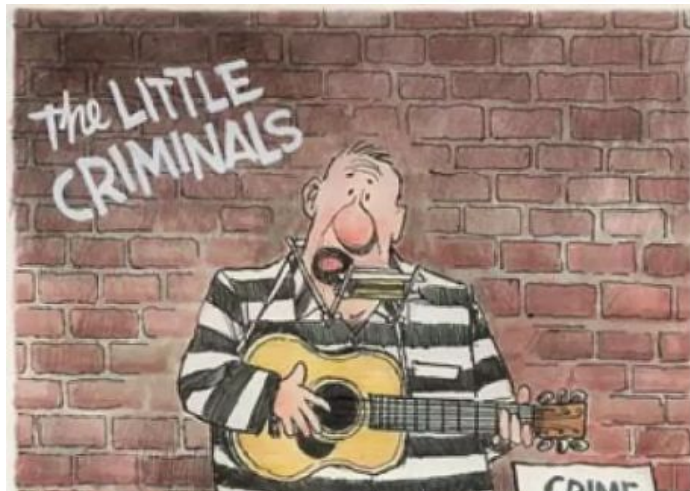

What does the proverb mean? Do you agree with it? Why? Why not?

Words of Wisdom

Crime doesn't pay.

(proverb)

THINK!

I agree with the proverb because although some crimes may have a financial gain, usually criminals end up in jail or living a violent and unhappy life. Committing crime will not improve your life but rather make it worse.

Look at the newspaper extracts (1-5) and fill in: mugging, vandals, kidnapping, burglary, pickpocket.
