

NORTHERN IRELAND

Khramova Mariya

3834101/00002

History

In the XII century the Normans first appeared in Ireland and subsequently founded the Colony of Pale.

Gradually, towards the end of the 16th century, English rule was established throughout Ireland

During the English bourgeois revolution, a rebellion broke out in Ireland, which lasted for about 10 years.

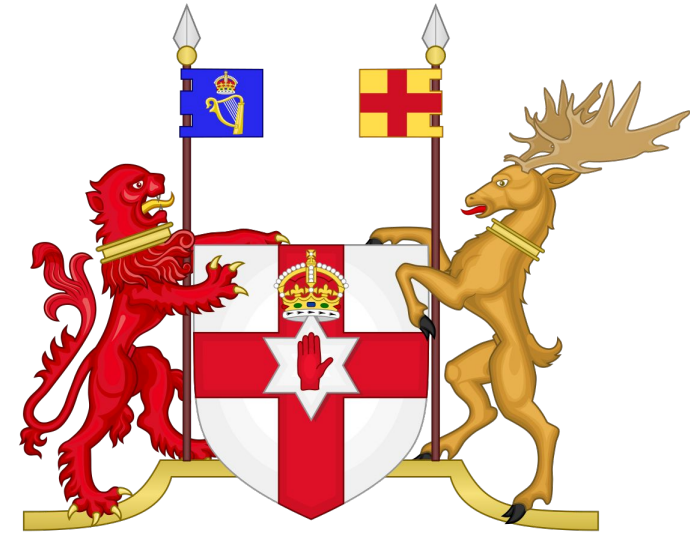

Since the end of the 17th century, various societies have appeared on the territory of Ireland, opposing the unfair treatment of the British towards the Irish.

Legislative independence of the Irish government in 1782

In 1918, the Irish Republicans won the majority of seats in parliament, declaring the independence of Ireland while forming their own parliament.

Anglo-Irish War from 1919 to 1921.

NORTHERN IRELAND SYMBOLS

Traditions

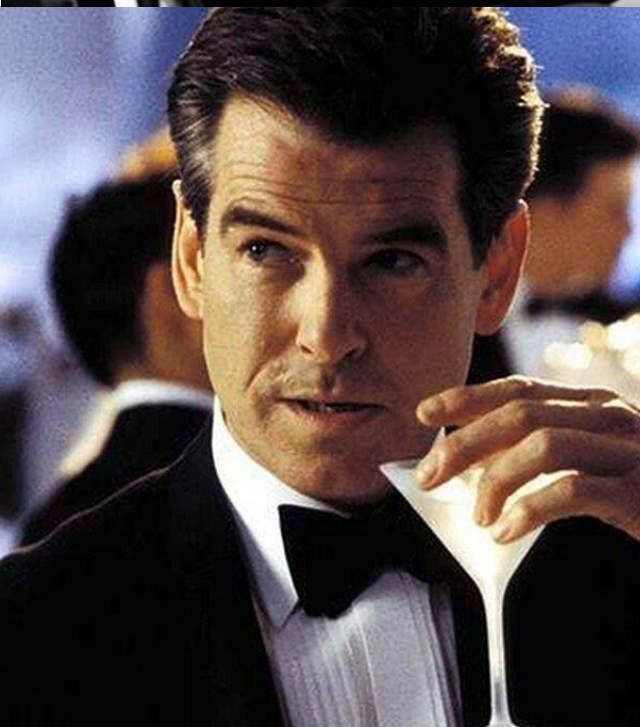

Love for horses

Receiving unusual inheritances

Reluctance to eat at a party

Sincere love for black humor

Love of controversy

FAMOUS IRISH

