

MEFODY BUSLAEV

Dmitry Yemets

«Mefody Buslaev» is a series of fantasy novels by Dmitry Yemets, the main character is a teenager named Mefody Buslaev.

Mefody Buslaev in twelve years discovers that he is the future ruler of darkness. He received magical power during a solar Eclipse.

Buslaev comes to the Moscow residence of darkness on Bolshaya Dmitrovka, where he takes on the training of warrior Ares. At this time the Guardian of Light Daphne, who lives in Eden, sent to the human world, so she was with Mefody.

So begins the story of Mefody Buslaev. He has to go through many tests before he will finally choose a side and go their own way.

The novel is very serious, it has a lot of Christian thoughts. The action takes place in a world similar to the real, but full of magic. There are a lot of wizards, magical creatures, and various supernatural entities. "Mefody Buslaev" highlights a fundamental question of the struggle between light and darkness.

Eidos is a little star, this is soul. Each person has Eidos. It protects a person from the darkness. Guardians of darkness can't do bad to the person who has Eidos, but only to frighten and seduce. The succubs and the komisioners kidnap the Eidos of people and give them to the guardians of darkness. Guardians of light protect humans from these creatures.

When the eyes looking to the sky, they reflect the sky. When you look at the swamp — the swamp is reflected. Our will and choice in where to draw the eyes.
