

My school

It was founded in 1861. First it was
school for girls.
After Great
October Revolution it became comprehensive co-education school specializing in English

We have old traditions, which were giving from generation to one, such as The day of Creation, golden autumn, Ural winter, Comunar training excises. Our motto is “Traditions, Creation, and Brotherhood”.

The graduate teachers are in our school. They try to give us all their knowledge and awake our interest to their subjects.

“They say, live and learn.”

An open book with a decorative border. The right page features a thank-you message in a cursive font. The left page is blank and framed by a decorative border. The book is bound in a dark red cover.
