my hometown

My hometown is Nehe City, Heilongjiang Province. The city is not very big but beautiful. There are four distinct seasons. I like the winter in my hometown most because of the thick snow. I can go skiing and make snowmen. I love my hometown!

My hobby and study

I am studying in a university in Russia. I am in the third year of university. The teachers there are very kind and I am very happy to study there! My hobby is feathering. In winter, I like skiing. Skiing is a very exciting sport!

My plans for the future

Everybody dreams about the future. There are many things waiting for us in the future, and I long to become an adult. I'm excited about my future because I have big hopes and dreams. And I am making preparation for that.

Here's what I want to do. I plan to study hard. There are some directions. I might be a teacher, a doctor or a scientist. No matter what, I'll be an expert at what I do so I can be useful to society. I want to be rich, too. I want to make a lot of money so my family will be proud of me. I also like to travel, so I want to visit every country and see the world. I hope to meet many people and make many friends.
