"I have always liked watching the magical night sky, and I would love to be the first author to jump over the moon!"

"The nursery rhyme that this story comes from is one of my children's favourites. I really like the ending in this story!"

The cow and the cat
looked up at the Moon,
shining high in the sky.

“Look!” said the cat.
“Let’s jump over that!”

“Oh yes!” said the cow.
“Let’s try!”

The little dog laughed
at the cat and the cow.

They jumped...

...but they could
not jump high!

“Look!” said the cat.
“By the dish and
the spoon,

the Moon has dropped out
of the sky!”

“Look!” said the cat.
“By the dish and
the spoon,

the Moon has dropped out
of the sky!”

Then all that night
they sang out a tune.

“Tonight is the night
that the cow and
the cat...”

“...ran and jumped
over the Moon!”
