ТРЕТЬЯКОВКА с Сергеем Шнуровым / Экскурсия по шедеврам музея

Recently I visited Tretyakov gallery online. My guides were Sergey Shnurov, musician and public figure, and Zelfira Tregulova, General Director of the Museum. The main purpose of this excursion is to make familiar viewers with Russian masterpieces.

Paintings that were told about:

Unexpected by Ilya Repin

"Demon seated" by Mikhail Vrubel

"The apotheosis of war"
by Vasily Vereshchagin

"Portrait Of A. S. Pushkin"

by Orest Kiprensky

"Dirt Road" by Alexey Savrasov

"Black sea" by Ivan Aivazovsky

"The appearance of Christ to the people"
by Alexander Ivanov

"Christ in the desert" by Ivan Kramskoy

"Boyarynya Morozova" by Vasily Surikov

"Calvary" by Nikolai Ge

"Girl with peaches" by Valentin Serov

Zelfira Tregulova gives us simple and understandable information about masterpieces. Her speak is pleasant and imbued with love for her work.

In my opinion this tour would be interesting to everybody who likes art. It is suitable for the ordinary spectators and for people who have been involved in art for a long time.

I recommend you this excursion. Especially now when we have a lot of free time to self development. It takes only 1 hour but you get incredible enjoyment.
