in the Past Simple

Little My often sleeps in a kettle. Moomintrolls usually make coffee in it, but she doesn't care. She is very small and likes to wake up in strange places. She sometimes takes a shower in their sink and plays hockey with their spoons. She also loves to watch their TV and reads their books. She loves small catastrophes and big surprises. People think that she is very naughty, but she isn't a bad person. Little My is honest and always keeps her promises.

Welcome to the UK

What do you like about life in the UK? What do you miss about your country? We asked some immigrant children.

Jelena, 16, Croatia

I miss my friends but I'm happy. The people here are very friendly. I arrived last year and my English wasn't very good. At first, it was difficult at school but my teachers were nice. I like the UK. I love the sea. There are some beautiful beaches here. British school dinners are okay but I prefer my mum's cooking! Croatian food is really tasty!

What do you like about life in the UK? What do you miss about your home country? We asked migrant children.

Ebru, 15, Turkey

The UK is very different from my country. In Turkey the sky is blue but here it's usually grey! On the first day of school, I was unhappy. Everything was so different but now I've got lots of friends. In the UK, boys and girls usually go to the same school; in Turkey there weren't any boys in my school. There are lots of good things here. The TV is great – I'm a big fan of EastEnders! But I miss my family in Turkey, especially my grandparents, and I miss our delicious Turkish food!

What do you like about life in the UK? What do you miss about your country? We asked some immigrant children.

Daniel, 13, Argentina

I arrived in Newcastle from London by bus. We crossed the river and I remember the bridges. I was sad. Now I think it's a fantastic city. The weather here is different – it's always cold and rainy. I miss some of my favourite TV programmes in Argentina. I like the UK but I want to live in Spain because they speak Spanish there – and it's warm!
