10.1 The passive

Form

am/is/are was/were has/have been will	+ -ed (past participle)
--	--------------------------------

The past participle of regular verbs ends in -ed. There are many common irregular past participles. See the list on p158.

Present

English is spoken all over the world.

100 million mobile phones are thrown away every year.

Fiat cars aren't made in France.

Where is coffee grown?

Past

The first text message was sent in 1989.

They weren't injured in the accident.

When was television invented?

We use the Passive:

- when the agent (the person who does the action) is unknown, unimportant or obvious from the context. The door had been locked. (we don't know who locked it – unknown agent) Repairs are being made to the car. (by the mechanic – obvious agent)
- when we are interested more in the action than the person who carries it out, such as in news reports, formal notices, instructions, processes, headlines, advertisements, etc. The whole area was evacuated. (news report) Breakfast is served from 6.00 to 10.30. (formal notice)
- to make statements more formal or polite. "My new dress has been ruined". (more polite than saying "You ruined my dress").
- to put emphasis on the agent. The Pyramids were built by the ancient Egyptians.

- We use by + agent to say who or what carries out the action. We use with + instrument / material / ingredient to say what the agent used to carry out the action. The cake was made by Ann. It was made with eggs, flour and butter.

- Only transitive verbs (verbs followed by an object) can be changed into the passive:

active: Mary feeds the dogs. (transitive verb)

passive: The dogs are fed by Mary.

but: They sleep early every night. (The verb sleep in this sentence is intransitive; not followed by an object. The sentence cannot be changed into the passive.)

Some transitive verbs, such as have, fit, suit, resemble, etc. cannot be changed into the passive. She resembles her father in many ways.

Changing from Active into Passive

To change a sentence from active into the passive:

- a) the object of the active sentence becomes the subject in the passive sentence,
- b) the active verb remains in the same tense, but changes into a passive form,
- c) the subject of the active sentence becomes the agent, and is either introduced with the preposition by or omitted.

	subject	verb	object
active	The mayor	opened	the new school.

	subject	verb	agent
passive	The new school	was opened	by the mayor.
