

Replace the words in bold with others from the list
Colourfull, perfect, delicious, gorgeous, tiny, delightful, huge, fantastic.

Small room =

Big fireplace =

Good weather =

Nice restaurant =

Good food =

Nice shop =

Nice jumper =

Good time =

- Crashing waves
- Leaves rustling
- Blue sea
- Smell of wet soil
- Straw umbrellas
- Tall green trees
- Smell of suntan
- Birds chipping

Bright sun

- Such a/an are used before countable nouns in the singular

Such a big house

- Such is used before uncountable nouns or countable nouns in the plural

Such nice weather, such strong winds

- So is used before an adjectives

So noisy

• Join the sentences with such/so

1) It was a lively place

2) The island was peaceful

3) The museum was amazing

4) It was a noisy hotel

5) The streets were crowded

- a) I didn't sleep well
- b) we spent a whole day there
- c) we missed the appointment
- d) we felt completely relaxed
- e) I went out every night

- Visit Disney land/fun/whole family
- Go/Black Rock Beach/ perfect for windsurfing
- not swim/ Sunset Beach/water deep(cold)
- Go to island/ September/ less crowded
- Go Cairo/ many things/ see

You really ought to/should,
I strongly advise you to (not to)
The best thing you can do is
It`s worth going/visiting

- Imagine you visited a place which you really liked.
Describe it using the plan.

Introduction

1) Where the place is and why you went there

Main body

2) Further details about the place/weather conditions

3) What you saw and what you did there

Conclusion

4) How you feel about the place and whether you recommend it or not

- I visited the National Gallery in London. I went there with a friend because we both enjoy looking at paintings.
- The National Gallery is a large grey building with lots of steps outside. The day we went there was rainy and cloudy, so we were glad to get indoors.
- We saw lots of beautiful and famous paintings. I bought a book about art and my friend bought some postcards from the gallery`s bookshop.
- I had a wonderful time that day. Anyone who is interested in art should visit this gallery.

90-100 words