

University of Manchester

made by Гаврилова Юлия

The University of Manchester is one of the most important higher education institutions in the UK.

The date of Foundation of the University is considered to be 1824.

Today, the University is in the third place among UK universities for the number of Nobel prizes received by employees or alumni of the University.

UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER

OXFORD RD

Blue street sign with white text, likely indicating a direction or location.

Yellow street sign with black text, likely indicating a direction or location.

Today there are over 40 thousand students and staff of the University numbers about 10 thousand employees. Moreover, the competition in the University of Manchester is the highest in the country, and the University ranked fifth globally according to the level of demand for its graduates.

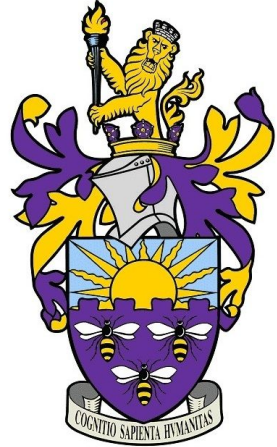

Today, the University of Manchester offers received training in four faculties: medical faculty, the faculty of Humanities, faculty of life Sciences (science) in the faculty of engineering and physical Sciences.

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

Accommodation during study

First-year students are guaranteed accommodation on campus. In total, the university offers its students more than 9,000 residential facilities (rooms, apartments, apartments). Accommodation is possible on the terms of full or partial self-service (cleaning, cooking).

Events of The University of Manchester

The University leads an active social life. Students are offered creative and sports classes at the university. Those who wish can focus on social, volunteer activities. Fans of educational pastime will find a lot of exciting excursions around Manchester and England. Entertainment activities will not allow students to get bored in the evenings and on weekends.

Facilities and equipment of The University of Manchester

The University of Manchester owns a compact campus near the city center. It unites educational, civic, and sports infrastructure. The university buildings are equipped with modern classrooms, laboratory centers, computer classes. Wi-Fi is available on site. The pride of the university is a rich library. It is one of the largest in the UK. John Rylands has more than 4 million printed books in its vaults. The electronic library collection exceeds 200,000 copies.

There are also public buildings, cafes, restaurants, shops on the campus. Special attention of students is attracted by sports infrastructure facilities. The University of Manchester has several sports centers, a velodrome, an aquatic center, and a boat station. The campus is also equipped with a sports town with playing fields and playgrounds, courts, recreation areas.

The structure of the University includes one of the largest libraries in Britain, which houses more than 4 million books and various publications. The number of computers for students in the University area is one of the biggest in Europe.

Almost all the students of the University of Manchester in the annual surveys indicate that they are satisfied with the quality of education. Foreigners account for almost half of all students here, which indicates the high popularity of Universities in the world.

Advantages of The University of Manchester

- This is a prestigious multidisciplinary university, which offers a huge range of educational programs
- Interdisciplinary training is practiced at the University of Manchester. Students have the opportunity to attend optional classes that are not included in the specialization program. This contributes to the comprehensive development of the personality of students
- University of Manchester diplomas are quoted in many countries of the world
- The educational programs offered at the faculties of the university are practice-oriented
- The University is among the most athletic educational institutions in the country. Excellent conditions have been created here not only for studying, but also for physical development.

Thank you for attention!