

Our Five Senses

By Yasaman SamsamiRad

Hearing

a fire truck siren

a trumpet

Hearing

We use our ears to hear. A trumpet sounds loud. Rain sounds soft. Wind chimes sound pretty. A fire truck siren sounds very loud.

Smell

paint

soap

perfume

flowers

Smell

We use our nose to smell.
Flowers and perfume smell sweet. Soap smells fresh and clean. Paint smells strong.

Taste

medicine

salsa

Taste

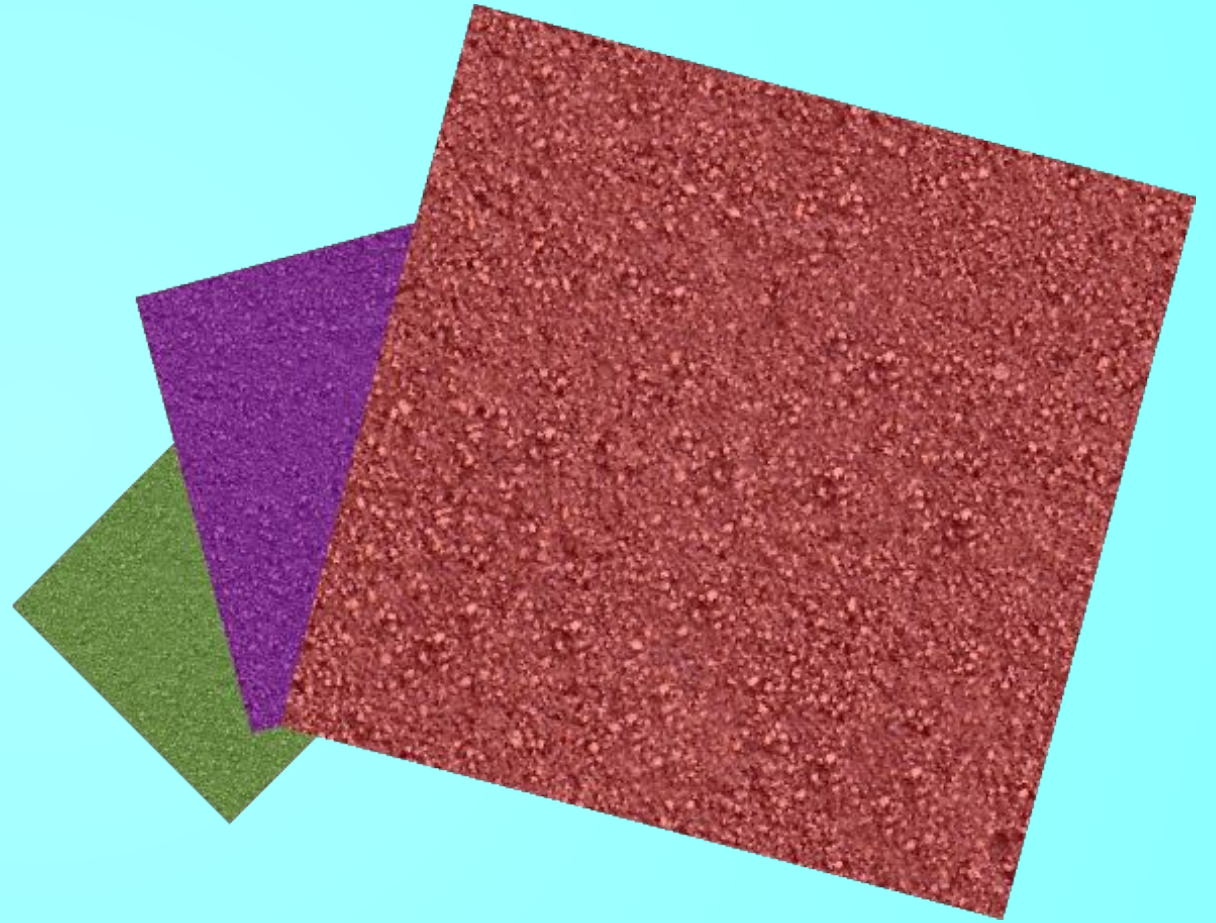

We use our tongue to taste. Ice cream taste sweet. Chips tastes salty. Salsa tastes spicy. Some medicine tastes bad!

Touch

Touch

We touch with our fingers. Sandpaper feels rough. A rabbit fur feels soft. A desk feels hard. Glue feels sticky.

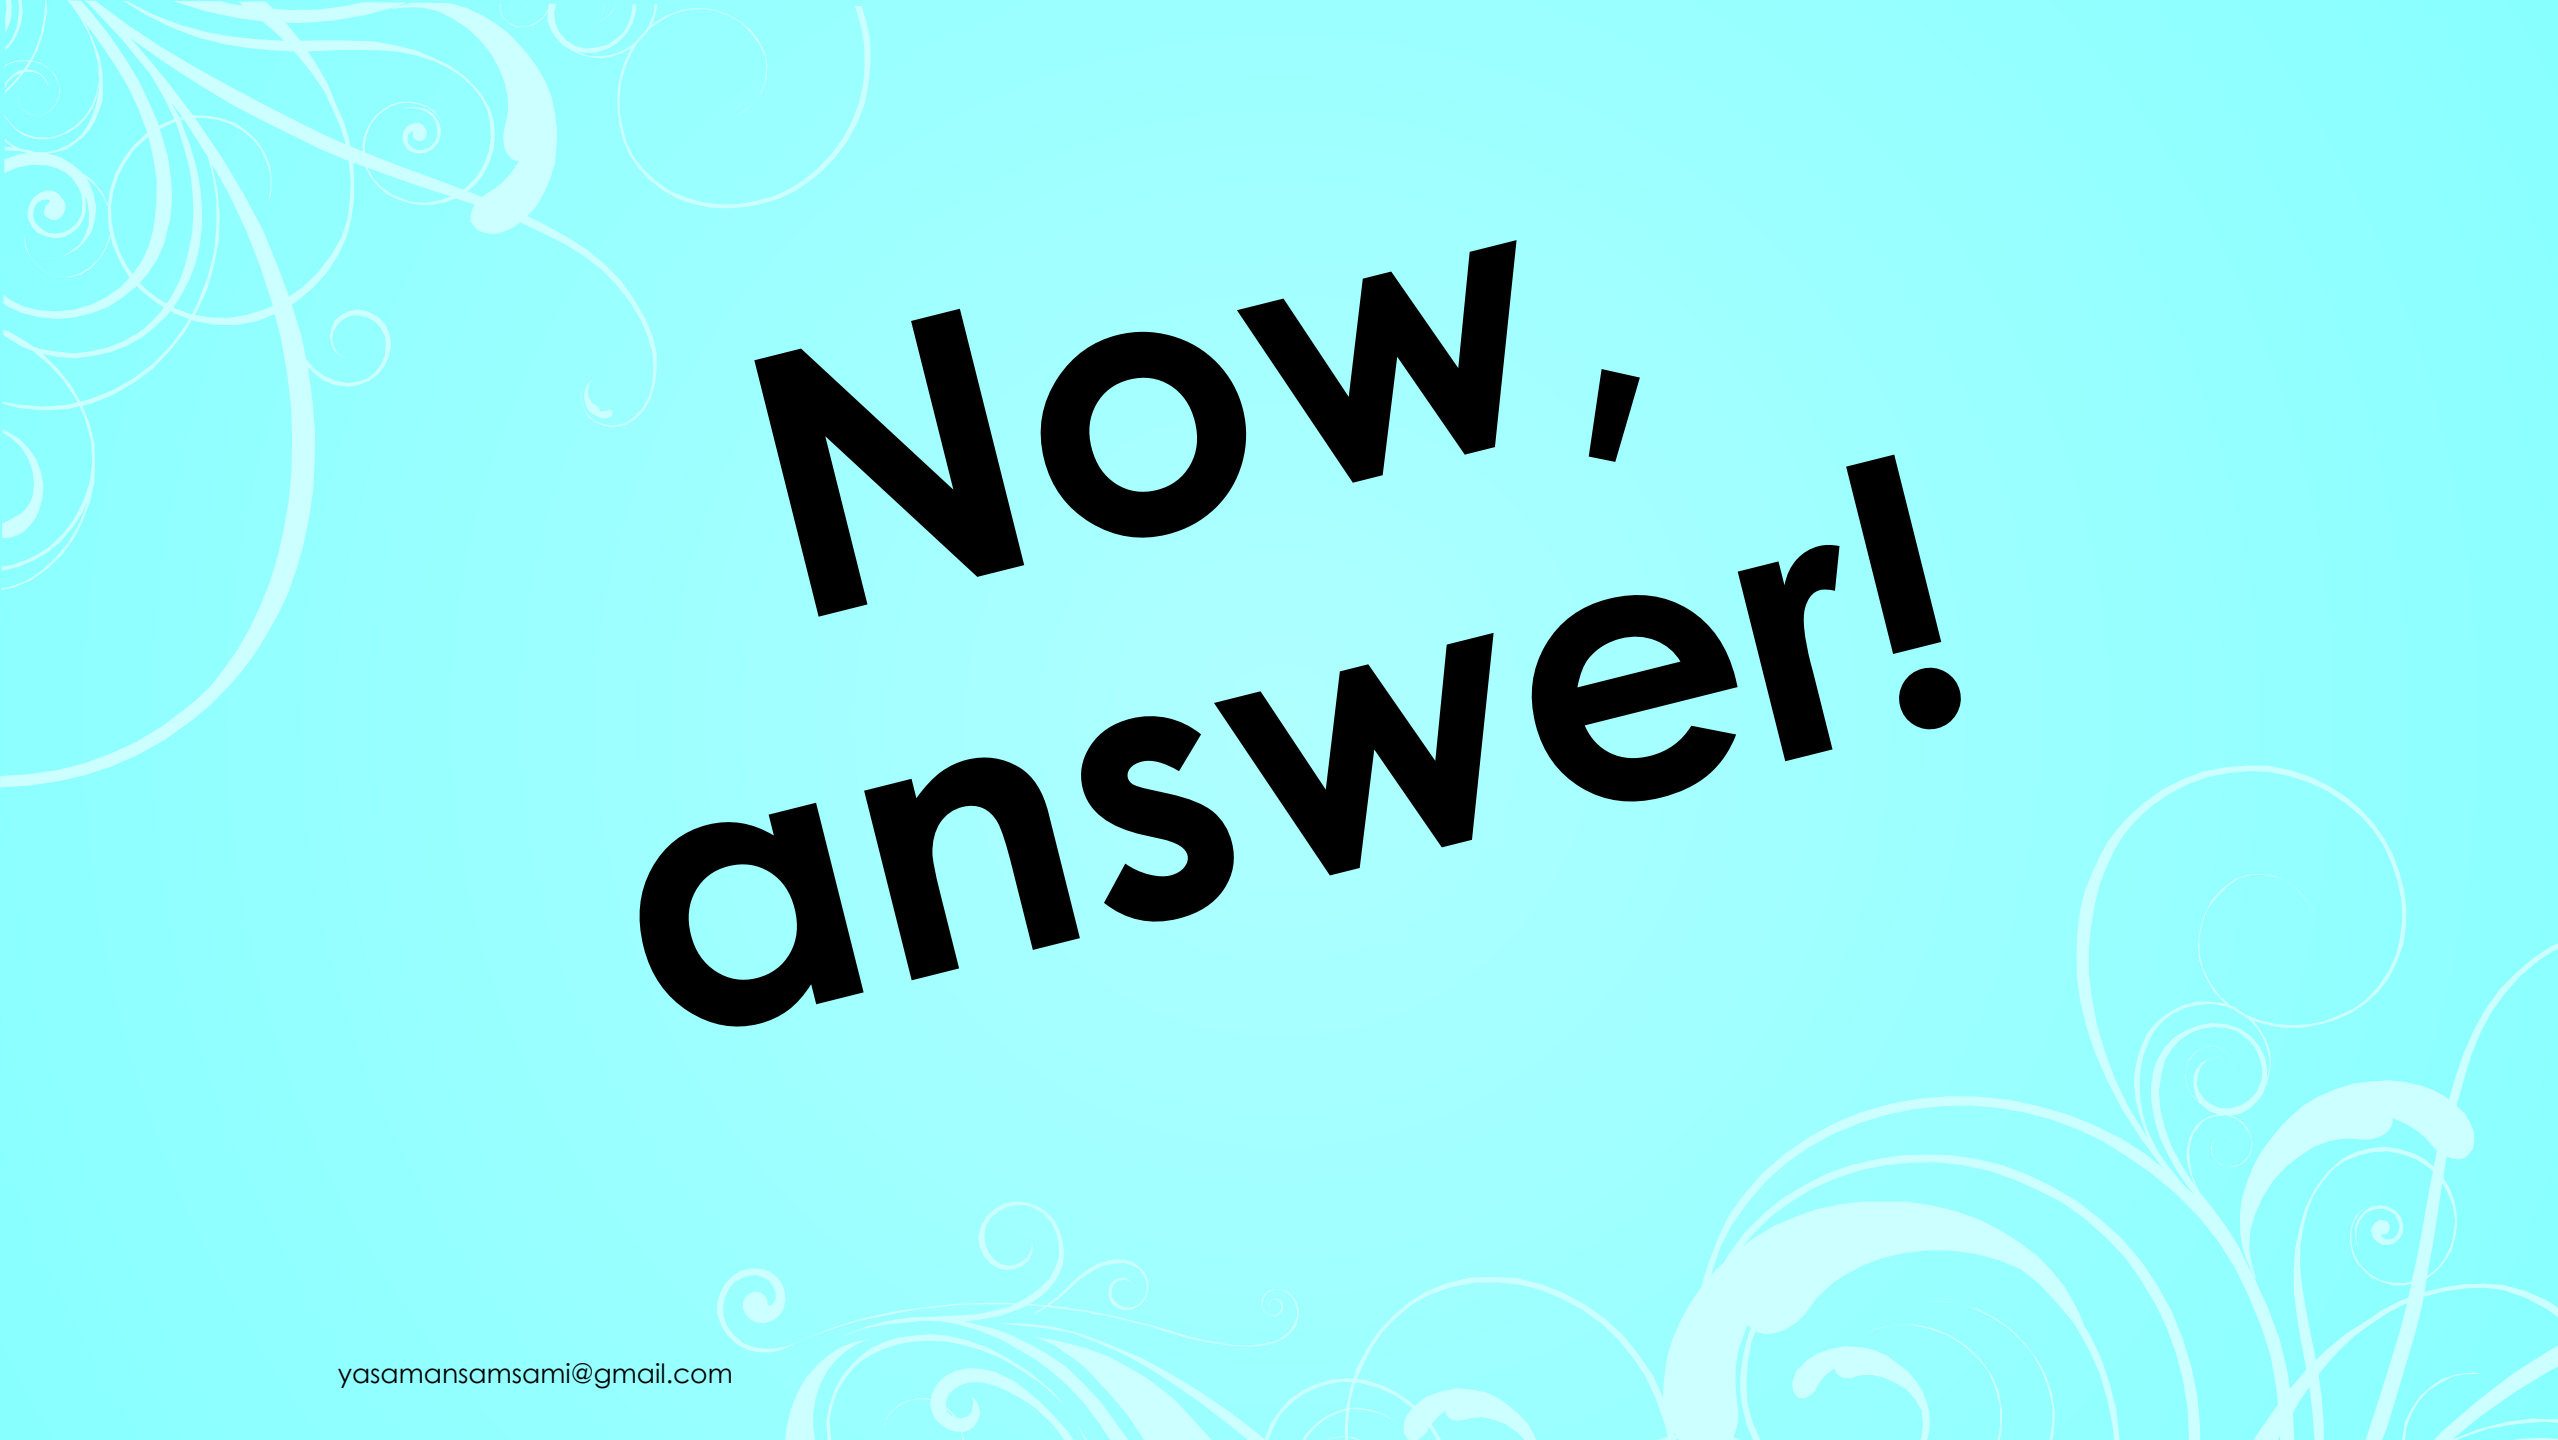

Sight

Sight

We use our eyes to see.
The suitcase looks heavy.
Flowers look beautiful.

Now,
answer!

How
does it
taste?

It tastes
*delicious.

How
does the drum
sound?

It sounds
*loud.

How
does the rabbit
feel?

It feels soft.

How does it
smell?
It smells strong.

How does sandpaper
feel?

It feels
*rough.

How does the medicine
taste?

It tastes bad!

How
does the baby
look?

He looks
sad.

How
does he look?

He looks
tired.

How does it taste?

It tastes
salty.

Good Luck!

