

The Theme :
«Toxic tones.
Ocean noise pollution».

A large, curling blue wave crashing over rocks. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, and the wave is breaking into white foam. The rocks are dark and jagged, partially submerged in the water. The overall scene is dynamic and powerful.

Why do we speak about this topic today?

A photograph of a forest path. Sunlight streams through the trees, creating a bright, hazy atmosphere. The path is dirt and leads into the distance. There are green bushes with pink flowers in the foreground.

*“If you don’t think about the future
you will not to have it”*

John Galsworthy

Aims:

.To know how people pollute ocean with noise?

.How does noise affect ocean creatures?

.What people should do to make this pollution less?

Why hearing is important for marine animals?

Learn new words

Task 1 - page 115 , listen and read the text ,
then find in the text :

Team 1: explain the meaning of the underlined expressions

Team 2: synonyms for following words

Team 3 : You should give the headings from exercise 3 to each paragraph in the text

There is one heading you don't need.

•Task –read the text again to complete the bubbles with information from the text:

Team 1
Ocean noise pollution is...

Team 2
How do people pollute ocean with noise ?

Team 3
How does this noise affect marine animals?

Homework

2. Ex 4 p 115(a two-minute talk)

REFLECTION

- ⦿ Used my brains
- ⦿ Sleeves rolled up
- ⦿ Bear in mind

- ⦿ Counted the crows
- ⦿ Looked blank

- ⦿ My thoughts are jumbled

If you want the life be cool,
Like a full of color picture,
Don't forget one golden rule:
Be careful with nature!