

The biggest economic news of 2020

«Coronavirus helps Europe beat the US»

- Too much budget spending is playing against America.

GDP public debt

2019

79%

2020

98%

What will this lead to?

Economists rate the risk of a serious debt crisis in Europe as low for the foreseeable future.

Since this information is only guesses, we cannot find out the exact result.
Therefore, we will find out the result of this news at the end of 2020.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a dark blue dress with white polka dots, is looking at a tablet computer. She is standing in a city at night, with blurred lights and buildings in the background. The scene is lit with warm, bokeh-style lights.

Definitions

- GDP(gross domestic product)-this is all that was produced in the country for the year
- Treasury bonds-these are government securities issued by the U.S. Treasury Department