John Lennon was born in 1940 in Liverpool, England. When John was five, his father left the family so he went to live with his Aunt Mimi and Uncle George. John saw his mother sometimes and she taught him to play the banjo. When he was a teenager, Aunt Mimi bought him a guitar. Sadly, the year after John Lennon left high school, his mother died in a car accident outside Aunt Mimi's house.

Soon after his mother died, John made friends with Paul McCartney. They both played the guitar and they started to write songs together. They decided to start a band with another guitarist and a drummer and The Beatles were born.

In the 1960s, The Beatles were the most famous band in the world. Young people copied their clothes and hairstyles to look like them. John and Paul wrote the band's songs and they sold millions of records. The Beatles also starred in some very successful movies.

In 1970 the band split up and John moved to the United States with his second wife, Yoko Ono. They became peace activists because they wanted to stop wars.

Then, in 1980, a man called Mark Chapman murdered John Lennon outside his apartment in New York. His death shocked millions of people all over the world.

The missing cups

When I was young, my parents moved from California to Illinois with me and my two sisters. We all helped my mother pack everything from our old house into boxes. Inside three of the boxes were my grandmother's special cups, bowls and plates. They were special because my grandmother, a clever artist, painted them herself with a lovely pattern of blue flowers.

Sadly, one of those three boxes was lost. We never got the cups, but the plates and bowls arrived safely. We used them on special days in the year, like birthdays. We remembered those cups and were sad that we did not have them any more.

..... Ten years later, I decided to go to university in California. In my first summer there, a friend asked me to spend the day at an antique market with her. At first, I didn't want to go, but I finally agreed and we had a great day there looking around. There were many old and interesting things for sale. We were just leaving when I saw a woman selling twelve beautiful cups with a pattern of blue flowers. I looked closely and saw they were my grandmother's cups!
