LES MAGAZINS DE MODE

Yana Grechanovskaya 11A

ELLE: le journal français qui est quotidien. I parle de mode, de beauté, de loisirs personnels, etc. Mais le magazine soulève également des questions importantes,par example la consommation de vêtements,l' écologie etc.

ELLE: ce magazine est populaire parmi des ados (les garcons et les filles aussi) et des adultes. Ce magazine détruit les normes que la mode est juste pour les filles. Donc existe ELLE man. Mais beaucoup des personnesne le comprennent pas.. Mais..

La mode n’est pas uniquement d’image ou le style. C’est:

-votre moral

-expression de soi

-méthode de traitement psychologique

-chercher soi-même

-loisirs passifs

Dans ces magazines, il y a aussi de nombreux rubriques, sondages, interviews de célébrités ou conseils utiles.

FIVE MINUTE Q&A

Tom Hiddleston

Up close and personal over lunch in London, Loki never looked so good...

When he's at home, Tom Hiddleston, 32, visits this same North London cafe every day. Today, when ELLE tries to pick up the bill for his chorizo casserole, the waitress won't allow it. They adore this particular regular, and it's not surprising. Charming, witty and clever – plus, as the interviewer of this month's ELLE cover star (Natalie Portman, see p258), a super-talented writer to boot – the Olivier Award-winning, RADA-trained actor makes you feel like there's no one else in the room. An hour in his company wasn't nearly enough.

How does fame feel?
Unexceptional. I'm inspired by people who do monumental things.

You're revisiting Loki for Thor: The Dark World. Is he like an old mate?
Exactly. When you take on a new role, you build the world around the character. Loki is the unpredictable firework in the pack. I like that Loki is a trickster – God of Mischief.

You're taking to the stage next, with Coriolanus. Do you prefer film or theatre?
In film, there's an intimacy with a camera; it reads your thoughts. On stage, an audience reads body and sound. Theatre is a great arena for words. But all acting is being truthful in imaginary circumstances.

Do you get stage nerves?
I do, but the adrenalin of performing live is unrivalled.

You've shot a film with the Muppets: a career highlight?
I met Miss Piggy at the BAFTAs a couple of years ago. Loads of actors had been trying to sneak in a kiss. When I told her I was a fan, she planted one on me. What a woman! Kermit might have issues with it, though.

What do you do with awards?
Put them on my desk. I've got a little bobble hat on my Olivier Award. I was in LA making a film and I was moving house at the same time, so I gave it to my mum to look after and it came back with a knitted hat on it.

What keeps you up at night?
Regretting. I want to look back and think I had a good crack at it. I'm not looking forward to the machine breaking down. Hopefully, 'old' will be nice, with grandchildren – what I've always wanted.

Thor: The Dark World, is in cinemas 30 Oct. Coriolanus is at Donmar Warehouse from 6 Dec
