Speculation with may and might

Use may and might + verb to show you aren't sure about something. You're guessing.

- What do you think it is?

I'm not sure. It may be a new kind of iPad.

I don't really know. It might be a handbag.

Speculation with may and might

Be careful with maybe and may + be.

- What do you think it does?

Who knows? Maybe it takes photos. (adverb)

I'm not sure. It may be a video recorder. (auxiliary verb)

Made of + material

Describe substances and materials used to make things with be + made of + material.

What is that plate made of? Is it glass or plastic?

What material is that jacket made of?

It's made of wool.

Used for and used to

- ✓ Use be+ used for in questions about the purpose or utility of something.

What's that machine used for?

I don't know what that stuff is used for. Do you?

Used for and used to

- ✓ Describe a purpose or use with be + used + infinitive.

That machine is used to make chocolate chips for cookies.

And...

- ✓ When you aren't sure of a purpose, you can show you're guessing by using may or might with used + infinitive.

That straw may be used to make baskets. (Maybe)

That liquid might be used to make soap. (I'm not sure)
