Harry has his ballet class

A colorful illustration of three characters from the Harry Potter series. On the left, a girl with curly blonde hair (Hermione) looks worriedly at a bubbling cauldron on a small stove. In the center, a boy with red hair (Ron) is shouting or singing into a blue, billowing cloud of smoke. On the right, another boy with red hair (Harry) wears a Gryffindor house robe and holds a wand, looking surprised. They are in a room filled with wooden shelves containing books, potion bottles, and various magical artifacts.
