

Source: BBC

NEWS

Tihanovskaya in Brussels called on the EU to impose sanctions

Vsevolod Ivanov
373302/02601

Economic consequences

Svetlana Tihanovskaya the main opponent of Alexander Lukashenko in the presidential elections in Belarus in August called on the EU to impose sanctions against Belarusian officials as soon as possible.

Why this happened?

Because of protests in Belarus

How this situation affects the business?

Depending on the imposed sanctions the economic sphere of the country will change. That is why the business will incur losses

Dictionary

- Imposed sanctions – sanctions which were set on any country