

How “Friends” changed the World

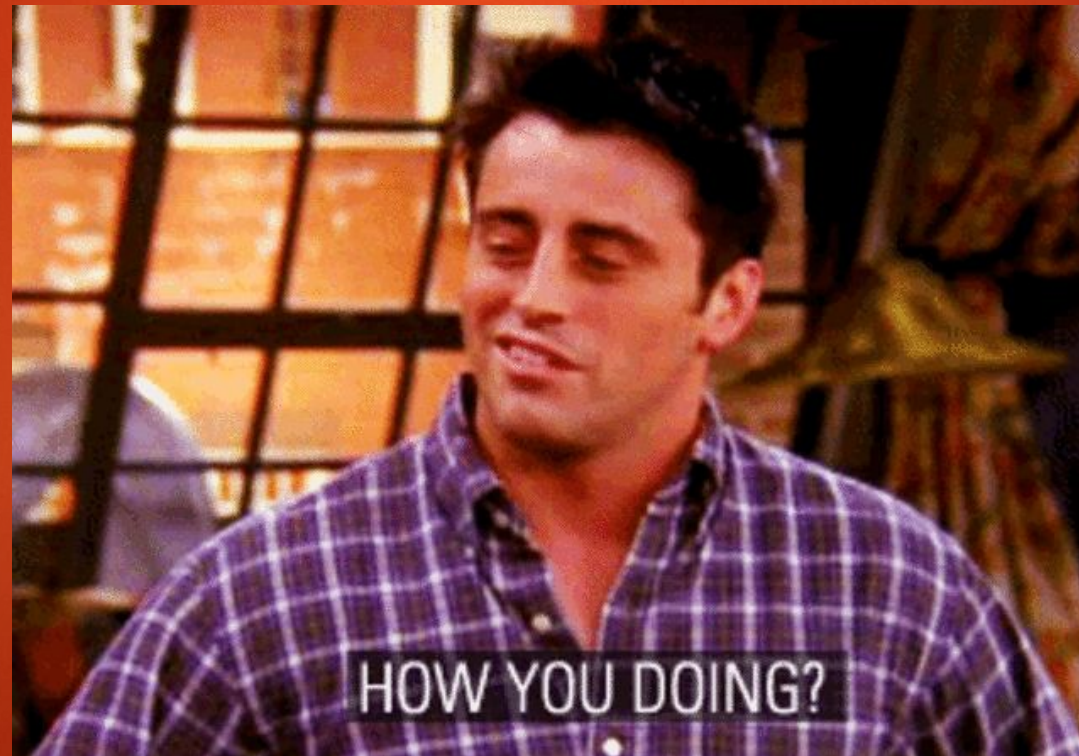

PREPARED:

SONYA GURSKAYA,
KSENIA MYANCHINSKAYA

Through Decades...

- ▶ All friends became are the most popular and favorite TV characters in society after release. They learnt how to live and spend your time entire Generations.
- ▶ Even now we use famous Joe's phrase "How you doin'?" with his special intonation.

Sitcom fashion

- ▶ This TV show was the first, which was about a group of young people, who lived close to each other in big city. They created new genre “sitcom”
- ▶ After “Friends” directors started make movies in this genre.

Personality type

- ▶ Every character reflected a certain personality type of young people, that's why viewers could see themselves on screens and understand their mistakes and specialty.

Social change

- ▶ “Friends” demonstrated a main social change in their time. Before their appearance, the essential value in society were families, but in 90 years little groups of young people had replaced them.

Influence on American culture

- ▶ Friends told people how to wear, teach them what to talk and how to joke.
- ▶ Rachel Green became the icon of Fashion. Her looks showed viewers how American fashion were changing in that time.

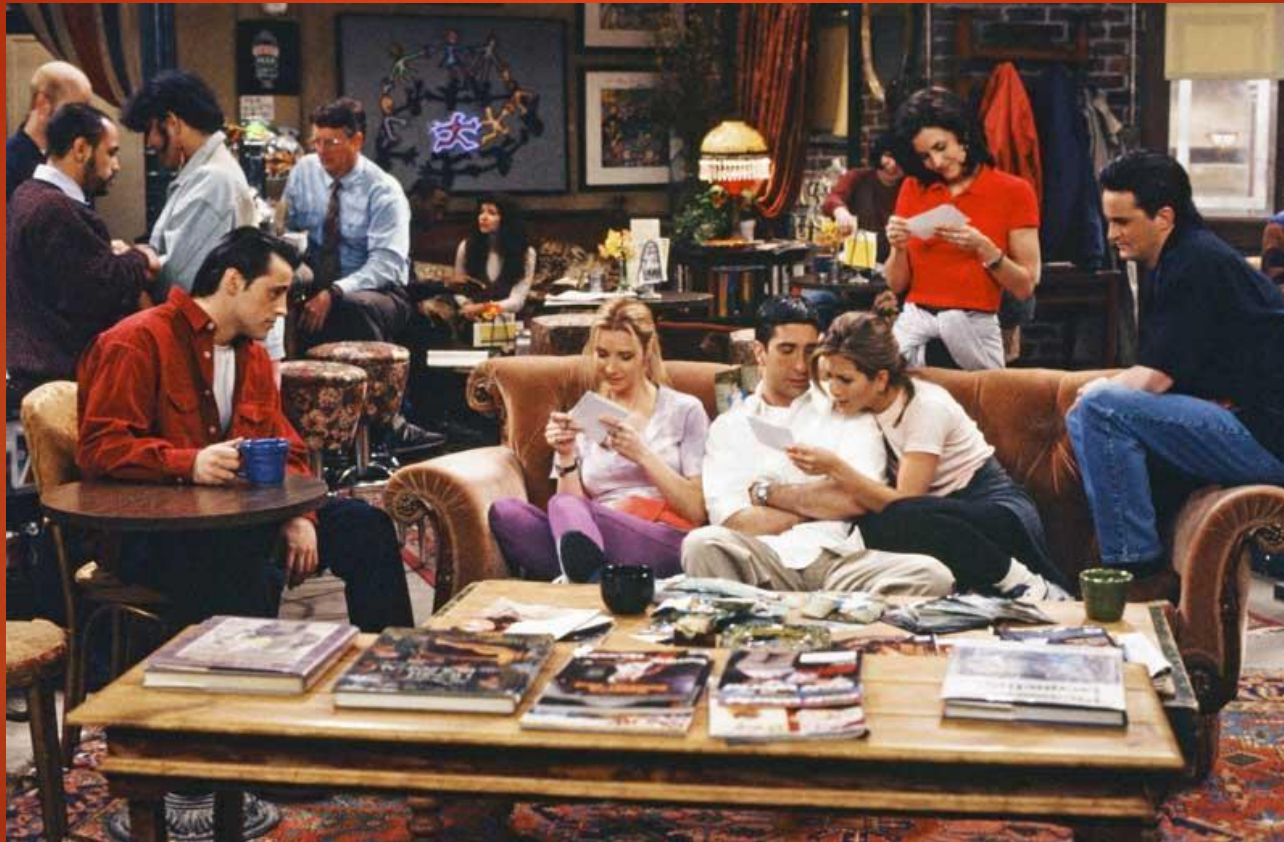

Professions

- ▶ Most people wanted to be cooks and paleontologists.

Spend your time in Café!

- ▶ Cafes became a great place to spend your time with friends!

In conclusion...

- ▶ We believe, that “Friends” born new Generation with light attitude to life and good sense of humor!

