There are several ways to express the future.

1. WITH THE MODAL WILL.

2. With BE GOING TO.

3. With the present simple.

4. With the present continuous.

WILL

We use the modal WILL + the infinitive form of the main verb for:

1. Predictions.

You will get married and have 10 children!

2. Quick decisions.

I'll have a cup of coffee, please!

Ok! I'll call you tomorrow

3. Promises, offers, warnings.

I WILL ('ll) call
You WILL ('ll) call
He / She WILL ('ll) call
We WILL ('ll) call
You WILL ('ll) call
They WILL ('ll) call

BE GOING TO

We use BE GOING TO + the infinitive form of the main verb for:

I am going to practise hard
to become a rock star!

1. Plans / Intentions.

2. Predictions based on clear signs.

Look at those clouds!
It is going to rain!

I am going to + V
You are going to + V
He / She is going to + V
We are going to + V
You are going to + V
They are going to + V

THE PRESENT SIMPLE

We use the present simple when we talk about:

My train leaves in 15 minutes!

1. Timetables.

2. Programmes.

3. Schedules.

I leave
You leave
He / She / It leaves
We leave
You leave
They leave

THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS

We use the present continuous when we have:

1. Plans.

2. Arrangements.

Sorry, I'm playing tennis on Monday, but I'm not doing anything on Tuesday.

I am playing
You are playing
He / She is playing
We are playing
You are playing
They are playing
