VERSATILE & FULL OF EXPERIENCES

Are you dreaming of a particular educational programme or an exciting job? Are you attracted by culture and entertainment from the whole world? Then this is where you should live. In 2020, Stockholm will be a versatile city full of experiences, with more to offer than anywhere else in Sweden. But Stockholm is more than that. Nature and water are always just around the corner, a combination that attracts visitors from throughout the world.

DAVID, WHO WILL BE 10 IN 2020

What's the best thing about Stockholm? That it's a city full of experiences and people, and it's always just around the corner.

What's the worst thing about Stockholm? That it's so much fun to live here.

What do you do in your spare time? Play on my PlayStation 3. I'm a member of the school of music and dance.

Why do you love living in Sweden? It's so beautiful. And go to the mountains.

In 2020, Stockholm is an obvious centre in the expanding Stockholm-Mälardalen region. The region's international competitiveness is strong and it is seen as Europe's top growth region. It features a dynamic, innovative business community that successfully competes in the global market and is characterised by knowledge-based activities, innovative power and cooperation with education and research institutes.
