

Tell your story

Put the phrases below into the correct column, depending on their usage.
Then add one or two other phrases to each column.

It was just after midnight.

Eventually, ...

What a laugh!

You'll never guess what happened to ...!

They were at the skate park.

Did you hear what happened to ...?

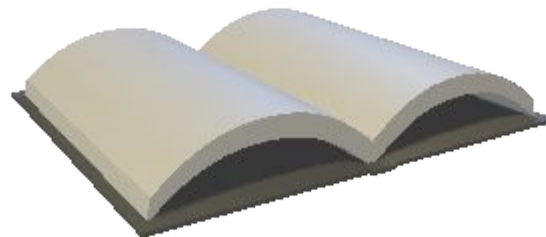

Finally, ...

So, a couple of days later ...

How frightening!

Anyway, the next morning ...

Introducing the story	Setting the scene	Moving the story on	Finishing the story	Reacting to the story
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>

Tell your story

Use these questions to help you make notes about your story.

- Who is your story about?
- When did it happen?
- Where did it happen?
- What happened?
- How did people feel and react?
- What happened in the end?
- How did people feel afterwards?
- Was it a good or bad experience

Introducing the story

You'll never guess what happened to ...! Did you hear what happened to ...? (Have you heard about ...? Did I tell you about ...?)

Setting the scene

It was just after midnight. They were at the skate park. (We were walking through the shopping centre. It was New Year's Eve.)

Moving the story on

So, a couple of days later ... Anyway, the next morning ... (Then the following day ... Not long afterwards ...)

Finishing the story

Eventually, ... Finally, ... (In the end, ... At the end of the day ...)

Reacting to the story

What a laugh! How frightening! (That was a big mistake! How hilarious!)

