| Adjectives | Positive | Comparative | Superlative |
|-------------------------|-----------|---------------------|--------------------|
| one syllable | long | longer than | the longest |
| two syllables | happy | happier than | the happiest |
| more than two syllables | beautiful | more beautiful than | the most beautiful |

We use comparative adjectives to compare two people, animals or things. We often use the word than after the comparative adjective.

I'm taller than you.

She is more beautiful than Wendy.

We use superlative adjectives to compare three or more people, animals or things. We use the word the before the superlative adjective.

I'm the tallest student in class.

She's the most beautiful girl in class.

Note: We use in for places after a superlative adjective.

She's the cleverest student of all.

She's the cleverest student in class.

Christmas Trees

Christmas Trees are usually pink in the summer and blue in the winter. They are never green. They have beautiful orange flowers in the spring. In the autumn big purple fruit grow on their long branches. You can see them only in hot countries like Egypt or India. People sometimes decorate Christmas Trees with toys, lights and candies at Easter. We never put presents under them.
