Last summer we ~~spend~~ spent three weeks travelling in France and it was the better holiday ever! We taken our car and get a ferry from Dover to Calais. We wanted an adventure so we didn't planned our trip. We drived and then stopped when we liked the look of a place. Our French weren't excellent but everyone understood us. The people in the countryside were friendlyer than in the cities. Often when we stoped somewhere, people invited us to eat with them. It was the more exciting trip I have ever been on and I want to do them again!
