

ATTITUDES

Part 2

AT THE LEVEL OF PRIVATE LIFE

- ◉ Traditionalism ?

- ◉ Individualism

- ◉ Conservatism

- ◎ Loyalty to traditions - “Supposedly British habits” are not typical any more (5 o’clock tea, City gents, etc.)
- ◎ Conservatism as general dislike of changes and love of stability (idealizing the countryside and country life: safe, calm, healthy, associations with old good times - national sentiments)
- ◎ Individualism - reluctance to follow any imposed schemes or patterns, utter independence and doing everything their own way. Privacy. Being different!

BEING DIFFERENT: BRITAIN VS. THE REST OF THE WORLD

- ◉ Driving on the left side of the road
- ◉ Imperial measurement system (vs. metric)
- ◉ Fahrenheit temperature scale (vs. Celsius)
- ◉ 12-hour face clocks (mostly)
- ◉ 1 hour behind Central European Time
- ◉ Not accepting EURO money (keeping pound sterling)
- ◉ Fiscal year starts on the 1st of April

IDEALIZING THE COUNTRYSIDE

- ◉ The love of nature (walking in the country - Ramblers' Association; 'allotments in towns)
- ◉ Passion to gardening (local competitions)
- ◉ Love of animals (sentimental attitudes to pets, wildlife programmes; bird-watching)

PEOPLE RESTING IN A PARK

PUBLIC SPIRITEDNESS AND AMATEURISM

- ◉ Not only professional dedication
- ◉ Voluntary unpaid work: Charities.

International Charities initiated in Britain:

Amnesty International

Oxfam

Save the Children

National Charities:

The National Trust

Age Concern, Cancer Research

RSPCA (Royal Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals), etc