

Evgeni Plushenko

Was born November Third, 1982 in city Solar, Khabarovsk territory. Crossing to Volgograd took place in four-year-old age.
There Evgenie has started to be engaged in figure skating. To have an opportunity to train, has moved to St-Petersburg. There has continued to perfect skill of figure skating at sports school.

- After the termination of a comprehensive school has entered the University physical training which has ended in 2005. First greater sports victory Plushenko took place in a season of 1996-1997. Then it became the first in the world championship among юниоров. Already in a following season has taken the third place in the world championship, and also the championship of Russia, the second - in the championship of the Europe.

For the first time in the biography Evgenie Plushchenko became the world champion in 2001. The figure skater won five times in the championship of the Europe. Possesses set of awards, ranks, premiums.

