

Military History Museums

Almost all Orel's museums are concentrated close to each other, located near to the center of the city. Military History Museum is a great choice for you if you are interested in the history of our town. There you will find some tanks, photos, history facts and lots of other interesting things since The Great Patriotic War.

Arrow square

Arrow Square or "Strela" on our dialect, is located around the obelisk. The monument was built for the 400 years since the founding of the city of Orel. It opened on September 17, 1966. Authors of architectural works are the architect R.K. Topuridze and sculptor A.I. Burganov. The obelisk is about 27 meters height. That's the point where two rivers meet each other – Oka and Orlik. You can get there by boat, a journey that awakens the most romantic feelings.

Sculptural composition

"Family"

The sculptural composition of the "Family" is located on the territory of «MEGA GRINN». On this sculpture you will see parents who leads their children: the girl is going to eat a portion of ice cream, the boy pulls his mother aside, and he spotted something interesting. A man with a woman looks to each other's eyes – and they seems to be in love and happy.

Lenin Square

Lenin's Square is the central square of the city of Orel. Named in honor of the area's famous Soviet politician and statesman, revolutionary leader Vladimir Ilyich Lenin. Square was created in the late 50-ies of the XX century. From 1961 to 1973 there were placed tram rails, that were connected with the city. Lenin's Square is an important part of the city.

Lenin Street

Currently, Lenin's Street is probably one of the most popular street in the city. There are lots of cultural and administrative buildings, cafes, offices and public organizations. The length of the Lenin's street is about 660 meters. It starts from the Alexandr's Street that starts from the bridge and ends at the Lenin Square.

The Square of Tankers

The Square of Tankers is located in the heart of the Orel, and was built for the heroes of the Second World War, who rescued our city during the WW II from Nazi invaders.
