

Grammar Moments

Unit 5

Couple / Pair

Couple – two different things (a couple of friends, a married couple)

OR – when we are not sure about the exact number

A couple of years ago

Pair – two similar things (a pair of shoes, a pair of gloves)

Besides / Except

- I've always wanted to have a pet. Besides, guinea pigs are so cute!
- Everybody except my brother wants to have a pet.

advice

choice

Had better / would rather

- It's getting late, you'd better hurry!

- I'd rather stay and spend the night here

Would you rather do it now or wait until tomorrow?

We'd better start writing if we want to do it quickly.

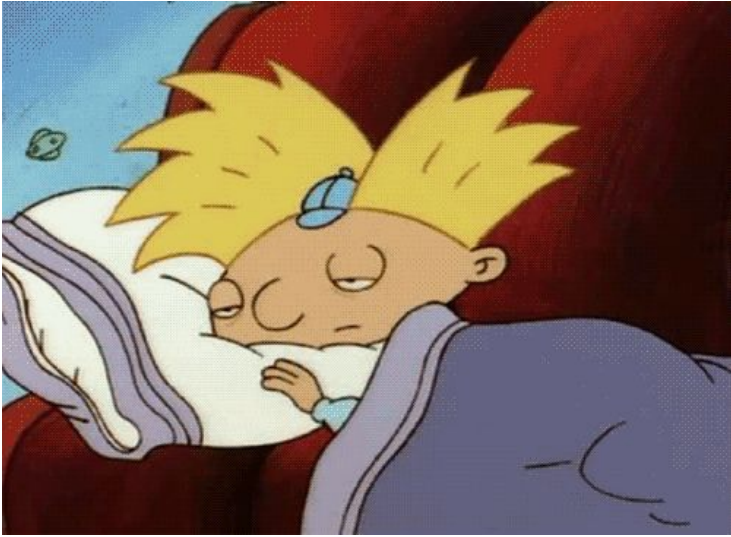

adj

adv

v

Quiet / quite / quit

- Be quiet. Everybody's working
 - It was a quiet night
 - That's quite a difficult test
 - You're quite right
 - He wants to quit his job
 - She quit smoking years ago

SICK

This is so sick! skatermemes

Travel / trip / journey / voyage

TRAVEL

(unc. noun)

the activity in general

"In my life, I've learned everything from travel."

"Travel and music are two of my favourite things."

"Everybody knows that travel is the key to opening your mind."

by CORK
ENGLISH TEACHER

TRIP

(noun)

the act of going to another place for a short period

"We went on a trip to Galway and Dublin last weekend."

"I'd love to go on a trip to beach tomorrow."

"I must take a trip to dentist this week before my teeth fall out."

the process of a trip time, distance, comfort...

JOURNEY

(noun)

the way of a trip (the descriptive details of a trip)

"The journey from Cork to Dublin is long and boring."

"How was your journey to work this morning?"

"Our journey to Ireland has just begun. We'll arrive in 4 hours."

VOYAGE

(noun)

a long distance trip by sea.

"The voyage from Liverpool to New York is very long."

"Explorers made many voyages across the Indian Ocean."

"Titanic's final voyage departed from Southampton."