

First, what is journalism?

- * Journalism is the activity of gathering, assessing, creating, and presenting news and information.
- * The activity or profession of writing for newspapers or magazines or of broadcasting news on radio or television.

JOURNALISM 112 NOTES

➤ Journalism is the business or practice of producing and disseminating information about contemporary affairs of general public interest and importance.

➤ Journalism is the business of a set of institutions that publicizes periodically (usually daily) information and commentary on contemporary affairs, normally presented as

Journalism involves the gathering, evaluating, creating and presenting of news and information to the public.

Journalism also includes analysis of and comments on news and information.

