Boarding School – What's it really like?

In films, boarding schools are exciting places, often with magic or monsters. But what is a real British boarding school like? Thirteen-year-old Laura Henderson describes a typical day at her school.

“We wake up at 6.30 in the morning and have breakfast in the school canteen. At 8.00, the bell rings for assembly in the hall. The great thing about boarding school is that we’re never late for school!

Lessons start at 9.00 and finish at 3.30. My favourite lesson is Science because we often do experiments. In the afternoon, we sometimes go to the library to read, or we do P.E. in the gym. In the evening, I often play badminton or go to a cookery class.

I go to a boarding school because my parents live in France. Do I miss them? Yes, but I’ve got some good friends here.

And no, we don’t have any magic or monsters!”

How many students have P.E. every day for two hours? Not many? Well, I always have P.E. from 2.30 to 4.30. I'm Steve and I want to tell you about my school.

My day starts early. I usually get to school at 8.00 but I'm sometimes late. Lessons start at 8.30. My favourite subject is Geography because I like maps. I don't like Art because I don't paint good pictures.

We have lunch at 12.00 and I often have chicken and chips. I never have fish and chips. In the afternoon we have P.E. I love P.E.! We usually play football or do karate. On Friday we play basketball. My favourite sport is football because I want to play for a big team. We finish school at 4.30. That's late for most schools. But I don't mind because I play sport every day! My sport school is great!
