

A decorative illustration of a girl with long, wavy red hair and large green eyes. She is wearing a crown made of various autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and red. She has her hands near her face in a thoughtful or admiring pose. The background is a warm yellow with a subtle pattern of diagonal lines and faint circular motifs. A dark red vine with leaves and small white flowers frames the scene. The text "В ГОСТЯХ" is written in a large, bold, black, stylized font across the upper middle of the image.
