The Four Types of Paragraphs

Excerpt from: <http://home. insightbb.com/~dbriccola/persuasiveparagr.htm>

- 1) Narrative: tells the details of one main event
- 2) Descriptive: paints a picture, only using words, about what a person, place, or thing is like
- 3) Expository: presentation of information, opinions, or ideas / it exposes something about a topic
- 4) Persuasive: when expressing an opinion, you attempt to persuade someone that you are right. A persuasive paragraph is developed with reasons based on facts.

Descriptive and Process Paragraphs

- ▶ A descriptive paragraph explains how someone or something looks or feels.

What is a descriptive paragraph?

- A descriptive paragraph is a paragraph that describes a person, place or thing.
- Using this description allows the reader to form a better mental image of the whatever is being described.

Writing a Descriptive Paragraph

- Make sure to choose a meaningful person, place, or thing.
 - Before you begin your paragraph, you have to be sure to pick something that is worth describing.
- Introduce the person, place, or thing you are describing.
 - If you want to get the reader's attention, then you should let him or her know what you're describing as soon as possible instead of leaving them guessing.

Descriptive Paragraph

Descriptive type of paragraphs are written in such a way to describe something with words that allow your reader to imagine the scene what you're describing. It is a text full of detailed observations. They are recorded, using sensory language. Descriptions are like narrative paragraphs, with visual characteristics unfolding in a dramatic way.

Example:

"The petite young girl merrily skipped around the blossoming, fragrant bushes."

Try to use descriptive adjectives to really paint a picture of each noun you write. Pick out strong action verbs so that the reader can see and feel the action in the paragraph. You can compare your subject to other things to help paint your picture. You want to be sure to focus on only one subject so that you can take the time to describe it fully.

Strategies for Writing a Descriptive Paragraph

- Uses words that help readers see, hear, feel, smell and sometimes taste what is happening.
- Includes plenty of details.
- Expresses how the writer feels.

Adjectives for Places

- remote, imposing, superb, easily accessible, inaccessible, peaceful, interesting, memorable, awe-inspiring, world-famous, off the beaten track, little/much visited, tourist-ridden, beautiful, picturesque, isolated, breath-taking, pretty, bustling sleepy, lively, sparsely populated

Revise personality adjectives

Positive Qualities	Negative Qualities
patient	boring
ambitious	pessimistic
generous	mean
mature	hostile
interesting	immature
friendly	impatient
tactful	short-tempered
good-natured	deceitful
thick-skinned	shy
easy-going	aggressive
hard-working	reserved
fair helpful outgoing polite cheerful

Description of physical appearance should move from the most general aspects to the most specific details:

details

- height/build
- age
- facial features
- hair
- clothes

John is a tall, slim man in his mid forties.

He has a thin face, blue eyes and a large nose.

His short hair is greying at the temples.

He is usually casually dressed.

- Identify the details above in Mavis's description

Process Essay

- In a process paper you either write about the steps the reader needs to take to do something, or you describe how something is done. If you see the following key words in your prompt, be sure to write a Process Essay.
 - Describe how “X” is done.
 - List the steps involved in (preparing) “X”.
 - Explain what happened in “X”.
 - What is the procedure involved in (preparing) “X”?
- Example:
 - Write an essay describing the steps in preparing for Eid Al Adha.

What should a process essay look like?

Process Essay

- Process Analysis is a “how to do it” essay.
- You show in words how to do things: what steps are taken from beginning to end.
- Finally, you tell what you will have when the process is finished.
- Transition words: first, second, afterwards, before, then..

Transitions

Process Essay Transitions

Process Paragraph Examples

Begin, by combing $\frac{1}{2}$ cup peanut butter and 1 cup chocolate chips in a microwave safe bowl, microwave for 1 minute. Than, stir to blend all ingredients thoroughly. Next, add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla, place the 9 cups of chex cereal in a very large bowl. Now, pour the peanut butter chocolate mixture over the cereal and toss evenly, making sure all the cereal gets a good covering. Finely, coat with powdered sugar, sprinkling evenly over the cereal and tossing as you sprinkle to cover each piece well.

Opinion paragraphs

What are opinion paragraphs?

- They are paragraphs in which you have to present your personal opinion on a particular topic.
- You must state your opinion clearly and support it with appropriate reasons and examples.
- Your idea is expressed through three sections:
 - Introduction (or beginning) in which you explain your idea
 - Main body, or supportive ideas, in which you make your point through examples
 - Conclusion, an ending, in which you give a transition to your arguments.

OPINION PARAGRAPH

- You give your ideas about a topic
- Introduce your opinion in the first sentence (Topic sentence)
- You make the reader agree with your opinion, so you need to support your opinion with reasons and supporting details
- End your paragraph with a strong concluding sentence

THE INTRODUCTION

This is the first paragraph of your essay, in which you are supposed to introduce the subject and to state your opinion clearly.

To state your opinion, these are the language structures you may use:

I believe/feel/think that... From my point of view...To my mind/way of thinking...As far as I am concerned...In my opinion/view...I am totally against...I completely disagree with...I don't agree with..It seems/appears to me that...I (completely) agree with/that...

An opinion essay

Are video games a good way to keep fit?

Nowadays, many teenagers have got video consoles at home and they often like playing active video games. These are good for you for a number of reasons.

First of all, I think that active video games are a good way to keep fit. There are lots of different types of exercise you can do such as basketball, water-skiing and dance and, what's more, you can play them in the comfort of your own home. In my opinion, these games are fun and interactive because you can play them with friends and, if you play online, you don't need to be in the same place as your friend to play.

In addition, you can play them whenever you want. Some people think that it's better to do exercise outside in the fresh air. Although this is true, it's actually difficult to play outside when it's raining or very hot so video games are a good alternative.

To sum up, I believe that video games are a fun and social way to keep fit. I think they are a good option when you can't play outside and they might encourage people to do more exercise.

Top Tips for writing

1. Write your essay in clear paragraphs. Use phrases like First of all, In addition and To sum up to start each paragraph.
2. Express your own opinion using I think, In my opinion or I believe. Mention other viewpoints with phrases like Some people think and say whether you agree or disagree with them.

Comparison/Contrast Paragraphs

Compare and Contrast

Comparing is telling how two or more things are alike.

Authors use clue words such as similar to, like, or as to compare.

Contrasting is telling how two or more things are different.

Authors use clue words such as different from, but, or unlike to contrast.

Homelessness

The number of people who are homeless in the United States is too high. According to the website, some reasons why people are homeless are decreases in public assistance, such as Social Security; low wages; and mental or emotional disorders, such as Severe Depression. Although there is no true solution to prevent homelessness, people can help. A few ways are by donating money to the National Coalition for the Homeless (NCH), donating an item from the NCH website wish list, or purchasing a book from the NCH website. In conclusion, donating money and/or items can help organizations bring awareness to the public, which could lead to more aid for the homeless.

Reality TV shows are good entertainment

Reality shows are a very popular form of entertainment on TV nowadays. There are dozens of different types of programmes such as singing contests, cooking competitions or going to live in the jungle.

Firstly, I think that there is a lot of variety in reality TV. People at home can choose which types of programme they want to watch depending on what they are interested in. Some people like watching singing or cooking competitions while others prefer watching programmes about building houses or travelling around the world. In addition, reality TV programmes are a great opportunity to discover talented singers, dancers or chefs. Several people who take part in these programmes get jobs as a result of being on TV. Another advantage is that the people on the shows have interesting experiences and meet new people.

On the other hand, some people think that reality TV is an easy way for them to become famous. However, most successful singers, actors or chefs have worked hard all their lives and are good at their job because of their hard work. Also, sometimes the people on the shows have to do really difficult or dangerous things. The competitions are very hard and there is only one winner. Another disadvantage is that some programmes always follow the same format and this can be boring to watch.

To sum up, I think that reality TV is good entertainment. There is lots of variety which means there is something for everyone and they are interesting to watch.

Top Tips for writing

1. Start each paragraph with a word or phrase so the reader knows what to expect, for example Firstly, On the other hand or To sum up.
2. Link your sentences with these words.
3. Organise your essay in paragraphs.
 - paragraph 1 – introduction
