

Present Simple

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Present Simple and Present Continuous

Present Continuous

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Present Simple and Present Continuous

Past Simple

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Past Simple and Present Perfect

Present Perfect

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Past Simple and Present Perfect

Present Perfect Continuous

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Present Continuous and Present Perfect Continuous

Past Continuous

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Past Continuous and Past Simple

Past Perfect

Speak about and give examples of:

- Form (including negative and question)
- Uses
- Difference between Past Perfect and Past Simple

Future Simple, Future Continuous

Speak about and give examples of:

- Forms
- Uses
- Difference

to be going to, Present Continuous

Speak about and give examples of:

- Forms
- Uses
- Difference

Modal verbs can, may, should

Speak about and give examples of:

- Uses
- Key features
- Their negatives

Modal verbs (must, have to)

Speak about and give examples of:

- Uses
- Key features
- Their negatives
- Difference

Articles (definite, indefinite and zero)

Speak about their uses and provide examples.

Conditional I, II and III

Speak about and give examples of:

- Uses
- Difference

Nouns

Speak about and give examples of:

- Nouns and their plurals
- Countable and uncountable nouns

Countable and uncountable nouns

Speak about and give examples of:

- Few/little
- Much/many
- A few/a little
- Number/amount

Some, any and no

Speak about the rules and give examples of use.

Passive Voice

Speak about and give examples of:

- Forms
- Uses

Used to and to be used to

Speak about and give examples of:

- Uses
- Difference

Comparative and Superlative forms of adjectives

Speak about and give examples of:

- Rules
- Adverbs and how they're formed
- Exceptions (late/lately, hard/hardly, fast, etc)
- Comparative and superlative forms of adverbs

Reported speech and sequence of tenses

Speak about and give examples of:

- rules
- reported questions