

- ▣ The December uprising is the protests of the Kazakh youth in the USSR government, which took place on December 17-18, 1986 in the colonial, command-administrative system. It is a significant event in the history of the Kazakh people, aspired to freedom, independence

- ▣ Independence Day of the Republic of Kazakhstan is a day when the history of the country, which has been deeply rooted, is once again a sovereign state. The Independence Day is celebrated on December 16 each year. This holiday is a holiday on the calendar on December 16-17, as it is a significant holiday at the national, state level. Every year citizens of the Republic of Kazakhstan are awarded with state awards for their significant contribution to the development of cultural workers, distinguished specialists in the social sphere, military men and officers, law enforcement officials and other prominent representatives of the country's life.

victims of December

Yerbol
Sypataev

Kairat Ryskulbekov

Sabira
Mukhamedzhanova

- Official recognition of Independence of Kazakhstan was recognized by the United States of America, which was the first country in the ocean, followed by China, followed by Great Britain. Mongolia, France, Japan, South Korea and Iran recognized it. Iran is the first Muslim country to recognize Kazakhstan's independence

