

September, 14th

Read the following:

[eə] – air, chair, pair, fair, stair, hair

[ɔ:t] – ought, fought, brought, bought, thought,
naughty, haughty

[əʊ] – home, homework, slow, show, yellow, go,
told, open, close, clothes

Read the poem

I've told you once,

Mom's told you twice,

Forgetting homework isn't nice!

Homework is like getting dressed:

You are to do it to be the best!

Match the questions and answers

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. Where are you from? | A. I am a pupil. |
| 2. Where do you live? | B. I am tall and slim. |
| 3. What language do you speak? | C. I am from Canada. |
| 4. How old are you? | D. I like pancakes with jam. |
| 5. What are you? | E. I am nine. |
| 6. What are you like? | F. I speak French and English. |
| 7. What do you like? | G. I live in Toronto. |
| 8. How do you look like? | H. I am naughty. |

Act out a dialogue.

1. Where is he from?
2. What language does he speak?
3. What is he?
4. How does he look like?
5. What is he like?
6. What does he like?

Act out a dialogue

1. Fairland
2. In the forest on the swamp
3. Fairytale monster
4. Very big and fat
5. Very naughty and angry
6. Fried rats

Past Indefinite

WORK + ED = WORKED

Liked, looked, jumped, washed, walked, worked

Stopped, hopped

Lived, opened, played, loved

Fried, cried, tried

Wanted, painted, fainted

Read and translate

1. Mary can dance very well. She danced beautifully yesterday.
2. Mike can jump very well. He jumped high yesterday.
3. Susan and Nancy can cook very well. They cooked a tasty cake yesterday.
4. I can play tennis very well. I played tennis much yesterday.

Learn these irregular verbs!

1. Go – went Joe went home after school.
2. Do – did I did my homework well.
3. Have – had She had a nice kitten.
4. Come – came We came to the park at 5 pm.
5. See – saw Kitty saw a monster in the zoo.
6. Say – said Mother said to wash the dishes.
7. Take – took The children took some books.