

PAST PERFECT
and PAST PERFECT CONTINUOUS

PAST

Past Perfect;

My husband had painted our house (in 1789) before we moved in (1790)
It was very colourful then.
We had a very original house then!

PAST

Past Perfect Continuous:

My husband had been painting our house. He was very tired. It was half painted then. It wasn't finished. It didn't look cool....

The lion was tired and sleepy

It

had been hunting (hunt) for three hours.

It

had eaten
(eat) three little poor gazelles.

poor gazelles ↗

My cousin Wiesław was exhausted, but happy!

He
had won
(win) seven table tennis matches.

He
had been playing (play) table tennis
for seven hours.

My friend wasn't full of energy

He
had been studying (study) English
all night long.
He
had read (read) seven books in English.

My mummy didn't make
breakfast yesterday.

She
went
(go) to bed, because she
had been ironing (iron) all night long.

Sad neighbours

They
were
(be) unhappy, because they hadn't sold (not sell) their old,
stinky car.

My mad teacher

My teacher

was

(be) angry because we

hadn't known

(not know) the answer.

He was mad with anger.

Alaskan bear

She
had never seen (see/never) a bear
before she went
(go) to Alaska!

Fat Butch

Butch
put
(put) on weight,
because he had been eating
(eat) too much sugar

Bad luck!

Kevin
had been painting (paint) for eight seconds when the ladder
fell (fall).

Chicken sandwich

I
wasn't
(be) hungry.

I
had just eaten (just/eat) a chicken sandwich.

Get on train!

We
were (be) too late. The train had just left (leave/just)

Town on fire!

The town
was
(be) on fire, because Andrew
had been playing (play) with the matches!

CrAzY SiStEr

My sister
made (make)
me mad.
She
had taken (take) all the kittens from the animal shelter

Happy hippo?

My friend wasn't (be not) happy
after the hippo
had sat
(sit) on his face

