

Lemon Festival

Lemon Festival takes place in the picturesque seaside resort town of Menton, in south of France.

Every February to March, the people of Menton celebrate Lemon Festival.

People of Menton celebrate this festival, because Lemon Festival attracts a lot of visitors and people celebrate their lemons and oranges.

Artists design and create amazing huge statues made from citrus fruit for the festival.

You can visit a daily Citrus Exposition.

You can watch the Parade of Golden
Fruit on Sundays.

You can watch colourful night parades with music, dancers and fireworks on Thursdays.

You can buy local products made from oranges and lemons and you can eat citrus fruit.

Thank you for your attention!

