

The 6th of June.

Past perfect

Use Past Perfect when you are already
Talking about the past and about earlier past action.

When I woke up the garden was all white. It had snowed in the night.

I had seen the film before.
You had seen the film before.
He had seen the film before.
She had seen the film before.
It had seen the film before.
We had seen the film before.
They had seen the film before.
I'd – I had

I had not seen the film before.

You had not seen the film before.

He had not seen the film before.

She had not seen the film before.

It had not seen the film before.

We had not seen the film before.

They had not seen the film before.

I had not – I hadn't

Ha

d

I
You
He
She seen it before?	Yes, I had.	No, I hadn't
It
We
They		